Through My Enemy's Eyes:
Envisioning Reconciliation in Israel-Palestine

Salim Munayer & Lisa Loden

This unique book addresses reconciliation in the context of the Israeli Messianic Jewish and Palestinian Christian divide. This remarkable work, written in collaboration by a local Palestinian Christian and an Israeli Messianic Jew addresses head-on divisive theological issues (and their political implications): land, covenant, prophecy, eschatology. The struggle for reconciliation is painful and often extremely difficult for all of us. This work seeks to show a way forward.

'This is a unique conversation in which each partner gives full expression to all that they are and think and feel about themselves and the conflict in their land. Above all we come to share the hope and courage that shines through the pain and struggle.'

Christopher Wright, Langham Partnership

'Given the divides between their communities, this book is a remarkable achievement, a cry of hope from the land where Jesus walked.'

Chris Rice, Duke Divinity School, US
